

PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT
ART FOR ART'S SAKE
HOSTED BY GUIDI

ART .1 /

Intellectual and industrial property rights

By signing this Regulation, each participant recognises and acknowledges that all industrial and intellectual property rights on the projects designed by them will belong exclusively to Guidi 1896 Srl, who will be the proprietor, in relation to the work and its related material, of all rights to economic use, including rights of publication, reproduction, distribution, communication, in whatever form or method, by any means, without limits of space or time.

The Guidi 1896 company will also have the right to register your project and use it for commercial purposes in any form or manner whatsoever.

The transfer of the rights mentioned above is made free of charge and it remains understood that participants shall not be entitled to any compensation or remuneration for any use or commercial exploitation of the work that may be put in place.

ART. 2 /

Originality of the work and/or project

The proposals must feature novelty, innovation and originality. Each participant declares and guarantees that the work and/or project submitted along with all related material, are original and the exclusive result of their own creativity, and that they are not bound or burdened, in any manner whatsoever, by rights of any kind, including industrial property rights and/or copyrights of third parties.

ART . 3 /

Authorisation to the processing of personal data

Every participant signing this agreement authorises Guidi 1896 Srl to process their personal data, pursuant to and for the effects of Articles. 13 and 23 of Legislative Decree no. 196/2003. Personal data provided by participants will be collected and processed for the sole purpose of managing the selection of the projects submitted. Providing such data is obligatory for the evaluation of participation requirements.

THANK YOU

GUIDI